September Club Meeting The Allagash Lake Loop with Chuck Horbert Tuesday, September 20, 2016 at 7:00 p.m.

The Allagash Lake Loop is a spectacular trip that links several streams, ponds and lakes in a 40-mile loop trip starting and ending at Chesuncook Lake in northern Maine. The trip is one of the most physically demanding in the Allagash Wilderness Waterway and includes the need to traverse the infamous and legendary Mud Pond Carry.

Chuck is one of several RICKA wilderness paddlers who have section-paddled the Northern Forest Canoe Trail – a 740-mile water trail across New York, Vermont, Quebec, New Hampshire, and Maine. He was also the organizer of the Paddle Across Rhode Island. You can read all of Chuck's wilderness paddling exploits in his blog at Northern Forest Canoe Tales. The meeting will be held at the Jewish Community Center.

Directions to the Jewish Community Center: From Rt. 95 South take Exit 24 and turn left onto Branch Avenue. From Rt. 95 North take Exit 24 and turn right onto Branch Avenue. Go past Benny's. Go left, then immediately right onto Sessions Street. Go down the hill to Elmgrove Avenue. The Jewish Community Center will be across the street. Please follow the signs and enter on Elmgrove Avenue and exit on Sessions Street.

Autumn Gales 2016

While not a RICKA event, Autumn Gales is sponsored by our friends at Kayak Wavelogy, and features our own Tim Motte on the coaching staff – congratulations Tim!

Autumn Gales is a rough water sea kayak training event that is geared to intermediate and advanced paddlers. It brings world-renowned coaches from the UK and Europe together with local guides like Tim, to create a fun and exciting experience. Training takes place in the dynamic waters and tide races of Fishers Island Sound.

Wilderness Selections from the RICKA Library

Northern Forest Canoe Trail - Official Guidebook (Book) - Reviewed by Susan Engelman

The newest addition to the RICKA Library is a great source of information for anyone thinking of paddling a section of the Northern Forest Canoe Trail that runs 740 miles and links waterways from New York to Maine. The book is divided into sections by state and includes information on camping, portages, gear and equipment. It describes opportunities for flatwater, quickwater and whitewater paddling on a range of rivers, streams, lakes and ponds. Details of flora and fauna are also included. Paddlers of all skill levels will appreciate the vast amounts of information this book has to offer.

The Complete Wilderness Paddler (Book) – Reviewed by Log of Ibi

The authors use a canoe trip on the Moisie River as the vehicle for teaching us everything we need to know to make a similar trip. The book includes sections on navigation, maps, portaging, camping, reading rivers and learning how to plan descents by ferrying, lining and maneuvering. It covers everything from how to find a wilderness worthy of paddling, to managing capsizes and wilderness disasters. It's unfortunate that the book hasn't been revised, but the dated material is minor and easily ignored, as the most valuable information on things like safety, wind and the behavior of whitewater are timeless.

These are just two of the great books and DVD's covering the range of paddling topics that are available in our collection. If you would like to check out these or any other selections, contact Bill Hahn at librarian@ricka.org. Library selections can be mailed to you with a postage paid return mailer provided at no cost to the borrower.

RICKA Family Picnic

By Erik Eckilson

Once a year, the entire club gets together for the RICKA Family Picnic. It's a great time for everyone to get together for some fun. It's also an important opportunity to recognize the dedicated volunteers that make this club possible.

After a few year hiatus, the RICKA Family Picnic was reinstated in 2008 by then RICKA President (now RICKA Librarian) Bill Hahn. For the past several years, RICKA President Susan Engelman has coordinated the event. An important consideration in planning the picnic has always been to find a fun location where everyone can participate in the paddles.

RICKA paddlers heading out

For several years the RICKA Family Picnic was held at Fort Getty in Jamestown – a great location with access to the West Passage for sea kayakers, and Dutch Harbor for flatwater paddlers. We have also had the picnic at Goddard State Park in Warwick – another great location on Greenwich Bay with one of the best picnic pavilions around. To appeal to those in the southern part of the state, we have also had the picnic at Ninigret Park in Charlestown - because who doesn't like walking over the barrier island from Ninigret Pond to the beach.

This year, the picnic was held at Colt State

Erik and Jim

Park in Bristol. Colt State Park was once part of the estate of Rhode Island banker and industrialist Samuel Colt – the founder and former Chairman of the US Rubber Company. It is located on Poppasquash Neck just north of Bristol Harbor, and the entire western shore looks out over Narragansett Bay. It is a great location for a paddle, and a popular site for picnics of all sizes. Thanks to Member at Large Lori Lucas for making the arrangements for us to use the park.

I headed to Bristol with my tandem canoe since I would be paddling with my good friend and long-time RICKA member Jim Cole. This trip would be a little bittersweet since it would be last RICKA trip with Jim before he moves to Florida.

I arrived at the boat ramp at Colt State Park to find that a nice group had already gathered. Our leader was Earl McCrea, and he got us out on the water at around 10:30. We headed south along Poppasquash Neck past the fishing dock. We didn't make it around the point into Bristol Harbor, but we did stop to take in the great views of

Manning the grills

Narragansett Bay - north to Warren and Providence, west to Warwick Neck, and south to Prudence Island.

After the paddle we headed to the pavilion for the cookout and RICKA Volunteer Awards Ceremony. For the past several years, RICKA Secretary Henry Dziadosz and Flatwater Chair Cheryl Thompson have coordinated the cookout, and they do a great job. I even got to flip a few burgers along with RICKA VP Sharon Dragon. Everything always tastes better when it's enjoyed with a few good friends.

Lets eat!

After the meal, Susan Engelman got us started on the most important part of the day – the RICKA Volunteer Awards Ceremony. We started off with the Most Consecutive Months Paddling Awards. These went to Chris Kracik and Lori Lucas for the Geochachers (44 months), and Frank Cortes and Jim Crowley for RICKA (66 months). I received the Golden Keyboard Award (originally established by long-time Newsletter Editor Alan August) from last year's recipient Chuck Horbert for my work on the Paddler newsletter. Then we turned to the BIG awards...

Carleen McOster received a Lifetime Achievement Award for her work as the Chair of the RICKA Sea Kayak group. Carleen has opened up her home for the sea kayak planning meetings, coordinated the sea kayak calendar, and has recruited many sea kayak leaders for the club. She has also led many trips herself, and is known for her sea kayaking skills.

Frank receives the Volunteer of the Year Award

Jim Cole received the Timeless Award for his many years of service to the club. Jim is a former RICKA President and Vice President, a long-time Membership Chair, and the current Wilderness Chair. He is a former Volunteer of the Year, and one of the members of the Paddle Across Rhode Island team. He is also the founder and leader of our affiliated club the Southern

New England Paddlers. He can paddle a canoe or kayak, and often teaches training sessions for both.

Frank Cortesa received the Volunteer of the Year Award. Frank is a Flatwater and Blackstone Valley Paddle Club leader who is always happy to lend a hand. His boat is usually the last one in the water since he always helps everyone else launch first. He is always concerned with the safety of others on the trip, and after the trip he can usually be seen helping others load their boats. He is a frequent instructor at Flatwater and Blackstone Valley Paddle Club training sessions, and leads many trips himself.

One of the high points of the RICKA Family Picnic is the auction of the infamous RICKA Lamp. For the past several years, Safety and Education Chair Cat Radcliffe has auctioned off the lamp to the highest bidder. The winner becomes the custodian of the lamp for the year, and it must be returned the following year with the addition of a new RICKA decoration.

Susan receives the RICKA Lamp from Cat

For the past several years, RICKA President Susan Engelman has been the custodian of the lamp. At this year's auction, it was decided that Susan should become the lamp's permanent custodian. Like Jim Cole, Susan will also be moving to Florida, so this will be her last year coordinating the picnic. Thanks Susan!

And thanks to everyone who helped to make the RICKA Family Picnic a great day. We would also like to thank all the RICKA volunteers that make this club possible.
